

Ciscoe is well known in the media. His Friday night Q & A show, 'Gardening with Ciscoe Live' broadcast on Northwest Cable News. Every other Monday, morning, he appears on KING5's New Day Northwest with Margaret Larson. His popular "Gardening with Ciscoe" show with Meeghan Black airs on KING/KONG TV. You can also catch his gardening advice mixed with a hearty dose of humor every Saturday morning on News Talk 97.3 KIRO FM. His book, 'Ask Ciscoe', was among the top selling garden books nationwide. In addition, he co - authored books on roses and perennials, and he also writes a weekly garden column in the Thursday web version / Saturday print edition of the Seattle Times. Ciscoe is crazy about dogs and gardening, and he can often be found working with his pooches Fred and Ruby in his Seattle garden which has been featured in several publications. Ciscoe's other passion is travel, and despite his busy schedule, he manages to find time to lead garden tours to countries all over the world.